Thanksgiving

“Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good!” —Psalm 136:1

The month of November is known for being the month of Thanksgiving and thanks giving. Prayers of gratitude have been around long before the story of Thanksgiving dinner began in the 1600s. The Bible has stories of people giving thanks from offering the first fruits of their harvests to offering a burnt offering of their best livestock. The Bible says nearly 40 times in Leviticus alone, “the smell of the burnt offering creates a pleasing aroma that rises up to God.” The act of the burnt offering was performed out of pure joy and gratitude often with music and some dancing. It was considered a celebratory act. November may offer only a few nice days for barbecuing; you better get outside and make a burnt offering of a colorful veggie shish kabob or a Texas sized grade AAAA steak. Do it for the sheer joy of giving thanks to God that you can. Put on some music. Dance. Say, “Thank you, God. This little party is for you.”

Other acts of thanks fill the Psalms. “I will sing to Lord, for God’s love is good. The love of God endures forever!” (refrain from Psalm 106). This refrain is repeated over and over in many of the Psalms. In-between the refrain are the things the psalmist is grateful for. For example, the rain came or the rain didn’t come, he has a house or feels protected in the wilderness.

Jesus gives thanks to God in his prayer at Gethsemane. The Epistles encourage saying thanks as a way of life. The letters prod the readers to be thankful for guests, greetings on the street, homes, marriages, businesses, and even persecutions. Why persecutions? Because the bullying meant they were living out of the norm. They lived out lives of thanksgiving.

Here are my top three ways for living out a life of thanksgiving:

- 1) Enjoy — God’s creation and marvel at it: the sun, the moon, the grass, the flowers, the rain, the snow. Stand in awe at the immensity and smallness of it all.
- 2) Enjoy — my family. Laugh with Hudson. Enjoy his snuggles, his cries and every breath he takes. Cherish Sarah’s friendship. Hold my church family near. Thank God that serving this church family is my calling and vocation. Stand in awe of this community.
- 3) Count the blessings and let it in to who you are —see one and two (Enjoy!).

How do you live out a daily life of thanksgiving? I would love to hear your top three.

*Happy Thanksgiving,
Rev. Trey Hegar*

IowaWINS – Moving Forward

IowaWINS held its first “Annual Meeting” under its new bylaws on Saturday, October 16. Attendees heard from Erica Johnson, founding director of Iowa Migrant Movement for Justice, who shared the work going on throughout the state that helps immigrants settle into their new lives. Tammy Shull presented a short history of the IowaWINS organization, which can be divided into BR and AR—Before the Raid and After the Raid. While the ICE raid dominated the news, it is clear that IowaWINS has been active in many ways to assist our new neighbors.

The meeting culminated in the induction of the new officers for IowaWINS. Officers and Executive Committee members are: Jeff Fager, President; Sam Riepe, Vice President; Bob Mueller, Secretary; Martha Wiley, IowaWINS Treasurer; Tammy Shull, Nutrimos Treasurer; David Suarez and Ed Kropa, at-large members of the Executive Committee.

Along with the ongoing activities of IowaWINS, a very special event is coming up in November. On Thursday, November 18th at 7 PM, IowaWINS will host the play *Vang (which means ‘garden’ or ‘farm’ in Hmong) at the Heatilator Performing Arts Center. The play presents the experiences of a number of immigrants from many different countries--a Hmong family, a Sudanese man, a Mexican woman, a Dutch boy, and others.

“It isn’t possible to witness this play and not be changed by the gut-wrenching experiences of these recent refugees and immigrants, by their ability to survive in the face of the horrific.” Dr. Judith A Conlin, Executive Director, Iowa International Center.

A free will offering to support IowaWINS (<https://www.iowawins.net/>) will be accepted.
